

Plant Science – Teaching Assistantships/ Postes d'auxiliaire d'enseignement – Fall 2024/automne 2024

These postings are directed to graduate students who will be registered at McGill University in the fall 2024 semester. Applications from others will not be considered.

Ces postes s'adressent aux étudiants diplômés qui seront inscrits à l'Université McGill au cours du semestre d'automne 2024. Les candidatures d'autres personnes ne seront pas prises en considérations.

Fall 2024 Application Period: May 31 - June 20 / Automne 2024 Période d'application: 31 mai - 20 juin

Job start and end dates: August 28, 2024 to December 20, 2024 / Dates de début et de fin d'emploi: Du 28 août 2024 au 20 décembre 2024

Application for these courses must be completed in Workday (<https://www.mcgill.ca/hr/careers>). Students who are currently employed should apply as internal candidates; students who are not currently employed should apply as external candidates. You must be a McGill graduate student to be eligible to apply and must be eligible to work in Canada.

Please note that Teaching Assistants will be required on campus to perform their tasks in person. Should anything prohibit in-person teaching activities, courses will revert to remote teaching. In the event of such a change, Teaching Assistants will be advised as soon as possible. Teaching Assistants may be required to perform tasks suited to a remote/online teaching environment using a virtual learning platform [e.g., Zoom, WebEx] and the McGill myCourses learning management system.

McGill University is an English-language university where most teaching and research activities are conducted in the English language, thereby requiring English communication both verbally and in writing.

Teaching Assistants must be available to work the entire contract period. When applying for the positions below, please first consult the up-to-date Fall 2024 McGill class schedule on Minerva to avoid any conflicts.

Les candidatures à ces cours doivent être remplies dans Workday (<https://www.mcgill.ca/hr/careers>). Les étudiants qui sont actuellement employés doivent postuler en tant que candidats internes.
