1. Introduction

This report covers the activities of the Office of the Ombudsperson for Students from June 1st, 2017 to May 31st, 2018, during which Professor Dimitrios Berk undertook his fourth year of a five-year mandate as Ombudsperson for Students that started on September 1st, 2014.

1.1 Mandate

The mandates of University Ombudspersons vary from institution to institution in Canada and abroad. Each academic institution's approach to the role of the ombudsperson has unique features; however the essence of the mandate is generally universal. A document on the Standards of Practice produced by ACCUO (Association of Canadian Colleges and Universities Ombudspersons) can be found at:

http://accuo.ca/resources/publications/standards-of-practice/

The role, function and scope of activity of the McGill Ombudsperson for Students are specified in the Mandate available on its website:

https://mcgill.ca/ombudsperson/files/ombudsperson/ombudsperson-students-english.pdf

a Article 1.1 of the Mandate stapts is the following:

The Office of the Ombudsperson offers confidential, informal and independent dispute resolution services to McGill students involving University matters. The Ombudsperson is an advocate for a fair process (and not an advocate for the individual or for the administration), acts solely in an advisory and intermediary role, and does not make University policy or replace formal channels. Communication with the office does not constitute notice to the University. For a full description of the mandate, please consult the website.
